Updates: KINT 3360 Secondary Methods and Activities will replace KINA 2378.

Addition of Minor in Coaching

Explanation

The Department of Health and Kinesiology now offers a minor in Coaching. The Department received request from other majors demonstrating a need for a minor in Coaching. Interdisciplinary studies students and others who are pursuing secondary teaching positions often do so with the desire to coach sports. The Coaching minor was built to service this need.

This action will:

- 1). Allow students in the Kinesiology degree (PETE) program to have a non-certification option.
- 2) Support recruitment of students outside of Health and Kinesiology who have an interest in coaching,
- 3) Increase the content area expertise of those wishing to coach.

Coaching Minor (21 hours)

KINT 3371 Theory and Principles of Coaching

KINT 4340 Sport Administration

KINT 4380 Contemporary Issues

KINT 4341 Practicum

Students are doing very well on unit plans. New courses being implemented: KINTs 2371 Functional Anatomy and Physiology, 3371 Principles of Coaching, 4310 Curriculum and Programming, 4312 Senior Seminar. 4340 Sport Administration, 4341 Sport Practicum will hopefully rates on unit plans.	C	The curriculum development is mainly in response to updates in TEKS for Physical Education so the program remains current. These changes should help maintain TExES (state certification exam) pass rates for K-12 Physical Education. Because of the 2 year course rotation in the program assessment data on these changes are only beginning. Our degree has had many changes within the past few years (adding/deleting courses) and we are still early on to see what impact these changes will have. There are students that completed the six week unit plan that did not take many/all of the new courses.
Students have demonstrated an excellent understanding of classroom management plans.
